Come on in and meet the family. We don't bite, unless you smell like a steak. In that case we have the Big Green Egg and Butt Rub all ready to go! (HAHA, lol)

Live it up in your Backyard!

The backyard has always been a place to relax and be one with nature and your family. We want you to feel completely free of stress and at peace when enjoying your surroundings. North Metro Pool & Spa offers more than expert pool care products and services. With the addition of Shoreline Spas to our product line, we have transformed ourselves into a complete backyard enjoyment store. Follow the links at left to learn more about how we can help turn your backyard into the relaxing utopia you have always wanted.

Introducing Shoreline Spas!

We have recently brought in a line of spas called Shoreline Spas. As many of our customers have already come to trust we only carry the best quality products. This holds true with Shoreline Spas as well. They are an exceptional value, with well-appointed features, thoughtful design and craftsmanship backed by one of the best warranties in the spa market. See our page on Shoreline Spas for more info!

Are you an “Egghead”?

If you have not experienced the cornucopia of tastes offered from cooking on this miracle of science than you are missing the eighth wonder of the world. With a reputation like that it is only natural to have a fan club. “Eggheads” are Big Green Egg enthusiasts, dedicated to producing the succulent culinary creations that only a Big Green Egg can provide. Always more than willing to share cooking tips and recipes, Eggheads know their stuff. As a Smoker, a grill and an oven any food can be cooked on The Big Green Egg! Come on in to our showroom and see this amazing state-of-the art cooking machine!
